From an operational perspective, tib-listed companies have demonstrated strong growth momentum. In the first quarter of 2026, more than half of the tib-listed companies reported profits, with total revenue reaching NT$11.12 billion, representing year-on-year growth of 36.52%, while pre-tax income surged by 422.92% compared to the same period last year. These outstanding results underscore tib's growing role as a crucial platform for emerging technology industries, while also providing the investing public with premier opportunities to participate in the growth and shared dividends of innovative high-potential companies.

The conferences will feature presentations by the core management teams of the participating companies. They will share insights into their business strategies, future vision, and key operational policies. These events will serve as an interactive platform for meaningful two-way communication. Through these conferences, tib companies will showcase their technological strengths and market potential, injecting new energy into Taiwan's capital market.
